RESIDENTS PRAISED FOR OIL RECYCLING

RESIDENTS of the borough have been praised for their efforts towards a recycling scheme, which sees carbon neutral electricity produced from used cooking oil.

A used cooking oil recycling tank has been in situ at the Frizlands Lane household waste recycling centre for four years, and in that time residents have recycled enough waste oil to create power for almost 2.5 million cups of tea.

Disposal of used cooking oil has long posed a problem for UK residents. When tipped down drains, oil causes waster companies an average £15m each year in damages. When sent to landfill it fares no better, often leaking into watercourses and harming local wildlife.

However, in August 2008 Barking and Dagenham Council implemented a new scheme, which sees waste oil collected by eco-firm Living Fuels and taken to its recovery facility. Once there the oil is recovered into a clean, green bioliquid called LF100 through a completely natural process without any need for chemicals or additives.

LF100 is then used in Living Fuels' renewable energy facility to provide renewable electricity to the National Grid at times of unexpected power demand.

Councillor Mick McCarthy, cabinet member for environment, said: "A lot of people don't realise that cooking oil can cause damage if it's poured down the drain or put in the bin. By collecting your oil and taking it to Frizlands Reuse and Recycling Centre, you are not only preventing this damage, but also helping to generate clean electricity. I'd urge everyone who uses large amounts of cooking oil to strongly consider recycling it."

Just one litre of used cooking oil can provide the equivalent energy for 240 cups of tea, and one full tank can power a home for an entire year.

Borough set to welcome Paralympic torch

BARKING & Dagenham is preparing to welcome the Paralympic Torch next Wednesday.

The torch will pass through the borough on its way to the Olympic Stadium for the Games' opening ceremony. The council is celebrating the occasion with an event in Barking Park from 4pm.

The afternoon's activities will include Paralympic sports challenges, lantern making workshops and face painting.

The lanterns will later be used in a twilight procession on Barking Park lake, while a solo aerial dancer inside and 11m 'diamond' will also perform.

The event will also include a large screen in the park for everyone to watch the Opening Ceremony of the Paralympic Games.

The Paralympic Torch Relay itself is due to start from Barking Park at 8.38pm, and will travel along Longbridge Road, the Northern Relief Road and London Road, until exiting the borough via Barking Road at approximately 9.02pm.

Council leader Liam Smith said: "Once again, as a Host Borough, we are proud to have such a unique opportunity to get involved in the Games.

"I hope that people from all over the borough will line the streets of Torch Relay and come along to the event in Barking Park."

The Torch Relay will begin from Stoke Mandeville, the spiritual home of the Paralympic movement, where the four National Flames will be united during a special ceremony on Tuesday to create the London 2012 Paralympic Flame.

At 8pm that evening, the Paralympic Flame will embark on its 24-hour journey to the Olympic Stadium, which will include 116 teams of five torchbearers.

For more information on the Torch route in Barking and Dagenham and the event in Barking Park, visit www.lbbd.gov.uk/torchrelay

A-levels

Chigwell School

CHIGWELL School recorded its best ever A-level results with 62 per cent of all grades awarded at A* or A, and 86 per cent of grades were at B or above.

Of the year group of 85 students, 34 achieved at least three
A* or A grades and 16 achieved four or more.

Headmaster Michael Punt said: "These results reflect the hard work put in by students and their teachers over a long period of time.

"They should feel very proud of their outstanding results which enable many to go on to competitive university courses.

"This year group have been a delight to work with, have contributed a great deal to the life of the school and we will miss them. We wish them every future success and happiness."

Leyton Sixth Form

LEYTON Sixth Form saw a 100 per cent pass rate in 19 A Level subjects, while its vocational courses saw 100 per cent achievement.

Principal Kevin Watson said: "It is always a source of relief and satisfaction to see the efforts of our students and contribution of staff so handsomely rewarded."

"The great majority of our students have gained the qualifications they need to progress to where they want to go next, be that higher education or employment."

Chair of Governors Paul Butler added: "Coming shortly after the completion of a £40million building project, the award of gold standard from Investors in People and a place on Ofsted's good practice web-site, the results complete an excellent year for LSC".

Students

YOUNGSTERS from across east London collected their A Level results last Thursday. Here we look at a selection of colleges to see how they performed.

Sir George Monoux College

STUDENTS at Sir George Monoux College maintained an outstanding 98 per cent pass rate.
Councillor Clare Coghill, Waltham Forest's cabinet member for children and young people joined students as they learn of their results and share their plans for the future.

The students were asked to write down their hopes and dreams for the future as they left the College in June. These were attached to 100 balloons and released into the sky in celebration of their results.

A-levels

make the grade

West Hatch High School

WEST Hatch High School celebrated this year's A Level results on the 20th anniversary of the school reopening its Sixth Form.

Year 13 again scored an impressive pass rate of more than 99 per cent, with 73 per cent of students gaining A*-C grades and 40 per cent achieving A*-B grades.

Five students gained three A grades or better with Ryan Wallace using his two A* and one A grade to go on to study history at the London School of Economics.

Paree Bhanu gained three A grades and will be studying Economics at Birmingham University.

Alex Maskell will use his three As on the BTEC sports course to study Sports and Exercise Science at Southampton University while Terri Soper also scored three As on the BTEC course.

Walthamstow Academy

WALTHAMSTOW Academy celebrated some superb results, which saw more than 43 per cent of all results between A* and A and 61 per cent A* to B.

Principal Emma Skae said: "Our students are very ambitious for themselves and for each other; they work hard and they are determined to secure for themselves the very best future they can."

Among those celebrating were Ifrah Ali, who was awarded four A grades in the three sciences and mathematics. Ifrah will be studying medicine at Imperial College, London.

Aaron Fardoe was awarded As in both maths and physics and a B in chemistry. He will take a place at Queen Mary's in London to study maths.

Newham College

STAR students at Newham College took gold when A-level results were announced last Thursday.

Four of the highest performing students at the college collectively sat 12 A-level exams and achieved five A-star grades, five A grades and two B grades.

Their results added to a 90 per cent-plus pass rate at A-level achieved by students largely from low income backgrounds.

Executive director of the college's Stratford Campus, Conchita Henry said: "Our College used the nearby Olympics as an inspiration for students and our best students have done so well they should be on a podium alongside Mo Farah and Sir Chris Hoy."

"The majority of our students'

A STAR: Bina Patel will do law at Cambridge University.

results are more remarkable because most are not from privileged backgrounds."

Having a small child did not stop

19-year-old Bina Patel, from Stratford, going to Cambridge University to study law. She gained an A-star in law and in politics and an A in history.

Former Langdon School pupil, Eva Muszynski, 21, from East Ham, gained A-stars in maths, biology and chemistry. She plans to go to Queen Mary University, London to do medical engineering.

Adil Hussain, 19, from Romford, gained A grades in biology and in chemistry and B in maths and wants to study petroleum engineering at Manchester.

Marayam Nazir, 20, came from Pakistan three years ago and now lives in Barking. She will go to King's College, London, to study pharmacy after receiving an A in psychology, B in biology and B in chemistry.

Jobs to be created as recycling plant set for expansion

UP TO 50 jobs could be created following the announcement of a £12million expansion plan at Closed Loop Recycling in Dagenham.

The funding, which comes from the government, is a major step forward in the company's development and will double the current capacity of its plant.

Construction is likely to start in 2013 and will create the most advanced plastics purification facility in the UK.

The firm takes waste plastic bottles and creates a product which can be reused for food packaging.

The company is the first major occupier of the Dagenham Dock Sustainable Industries Park in Barking and Dagenham and represents major investment and job creation in the borough.

As well as safeguarding existing jobs, the planned expansion will create 40 to 50 new jobs and the company will work with the council in order to ensure a maximum number of local residents are employed at the firm.

Councillor Cameron Geddes, cabinet member for regeneration, said: "This announcement is very good news not just for Closed Loop Recycling, but for the borough as a whole. I recently visited the plant and was very impressed.

Closed Loop is a great example of the forward thinking green industries we are looking to attract to the Sustainable Industries Park and in the borough.

"As a Council, we will continue to work closely with our partners, residents and local businesses to bring in investment in jobs and other business opportunities.

"We will continue to present our borough as London's newest business opportunity and will continue to encourage business to move here and create employment opportunities for our residents."

Bloomin' well done to winners

THE WINNERS of this year's Redbridge in Bloom have been announced.

The competition, now in its seventeenth year, included three new Olympic themed categories as the competition launch coincided with 100 days to go until the London 2012 Games.

The judges looked for imaginative use of flowers, shrubs and displays of horticultural excellence.

Marks were awarded for colour, condition and quality of plants as well as the layout and overall impact.

Despite extraordinary weather conditions this year and hosepipe bans there were a number of impressive entries for the various categories, a selection of winners from across Redbridge are as follows:

■ Borough's Best Front Garden - Kenneth Goldsmith, Hainault

■ Best Public House category - The Nightingale, Wanstead

■ Best London 2012 inspired school gardening project - South Park Primary School

Prize winners for the competition will be invited to an awards ceremony in October to be held at Valentines Mansion, Ilford.

For the first time this ceremony will include winners of the borough's best allotment plots.

Young Advisors scoop award for leaving a 'lasting impact'

YOUNG Advisors in Waltham Forest certainly leave a 'lasting impact'.

That is the award they were given second place in at the National Young Advisors Charity Annual General Meeting earlier this month.

The award was presented to the team of six at the event in the Peak District recognising their work to investigate how young people in Waltham Forest use and perceive emotional health services available to them.

The project was commissioned by Waltham Forest Council's CAMHS (Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services) on Emotional

Health and Well-Being.

The Young Advisors looked at who young people go to for support, how young people think these services should be provided, and how they currently feel about the quality of services.

Councillor Clare Coghill, cabinet member for children and young people, said: "Engaging young people on these sorts of subjects is very important if we are to get it right when it comes to delivering services. Now more than ever we need to make sure everything we do adds value and is targeted in the right way to the people who need it."

The Young Advisors developed a survey and also a discussion guide for focus groups. Focus groups were held with year seven to eleven pupils and sixth form students, with surveys given out to other children not involved in the focus groups.

This research led to a report with several recommendations including training, better information of services and support, and raised the possibility of an 'awareness month' for mental health issues. It also recommended the promotion of the 'Emotional Health Waltham Forest' Facebook page created by the Young Advisors.

Reiki healer to hold 24- hour event for ill child

By Charles Thomson

A CANVEY beauty salon will hold a 24-hour fundraising event next month to pay for life-saving surgery for a 20-month-old girl.

The event at Sweet Feet, in Charfleets Road, will raise money for Lily Mai Murray, who was born with several life-threatening illnesses.

The Thurrock tot, who is blind, suffers from cerebral palsy, epilepsy and a heart murmur.

She also suffers from a rare genetic disorder called Vein of Galen Malformation, which deprives her brain of oxygen, causing her overworked heart to expand.

Her family is attempting to raise £50,000 to send her to New York for pioneering surgery.

Reiki healer Dave Cross, who masterminded the upcoming 24-hour charity event, heard of Lily Mai's plight in the Yellow Advertiser.

Between 10am on September 22 and 10am on September 23, Dave will work constantly to complete as many treatments as he can, donating all proceeds to the Lily Mai fund. Other treatments, including fish pedicures, will be available during the marathon beauty therapy session with therapists donating a portion of their takings to the fund.

Dave said his reiki healing could 'remove negative energy and boost the immune system'.

He said he learned the art in India in the mid-1970s, where he was working with the British Army as a combat and rescue medic.

He said: "We were on a military expedition from Sri Lanka to the Chinese border and we stopped for a week's rest near the Taj Mahal."

"I was sat there watching all these people hobbling into this building, then walking out looking a lot fitter. I went to ask the man inside what he was doing."

"He was a reiki healer. I watched him all week because I thought knowing how to do it would be invaluable, coupled with my existing medical knowledge."

In 2007 Dave collapsed with chronic fatigue syndrome and sought help from a reiki healer.

He said after three months of treatment he was able to run 15 miles.

Inspired to further his knowledge of reiki, he completed a 15-month training programme under the healer who helped him.

He has been a practicing healer ever since.

■ To book an appointment at the 24-hour event, call Dave on 07873 605028. For other therapies call Sweet Feet on 07917 583100.

Teen who broke man's jaw avoids prison term

A DAGENHAM man serving a suspended sentence has avoided jail after breaking a man's jaw.

A 61-year-old was sitting in his car near the junction of Reede Road and the Heathway on the afternoon of March 28 last year when another vehicle sounded its horn.

As the man turned to see who it was, he was hit in the head with a packet of sweets.

When he got out of his car to speak to the man in the car behind there was an argument that ended with the victim being punched in the face, and suffering a fractured jaw as a result.

Initially the defendant, Altin Mula, admitted to being involved in the argument but denied punching the victim in the face. He later changed his account to claim that he was at Kingston University on the day that the assault took place.

However, at Snaresbrook Crown Court last Monday 18-year-old Mula, of Reede Road, was sentenced to 10 months imprisonment and ordered to pay £1,000 court costs and £1,000 in compensation.

He also received a further two months imprisonment because he was serving a suspended sentence for a previous incident at the time of the offence. But the total sentence of 12 months was suspended for two years.

In addition, Mula is also subject to a curfew between 8pm and 6am for six months.

Detective Constable Nainesh Desai of Barking and Dagenham CID said he was 'very pleased' with the sentence.

"Even after injuries heal the effects of violent crime often remain with the victim," he said.

School's planning permission granted

CHIGWELL School has been granted planning permission to build a Pre Prep School on site and is hoping to admit the first pupils in September 2013.

Currently the school, which was founded in 1629, admits pupils at the age of seven. The Pre Prep will enable the School to take children from the age of four.

There will be two classes of 18 children in each of the three pre prep years once the school reaches capacity.

Extra parking is also set to be created as part of the project.

Donate unwanted clothing

FAMILIES are being encouraged to have a clear out of unwanted children's clothes to support the NSPCC.

To help out, parents should fill a large bag with the unwanted clothes, shoes, belts and bags, and call NSPCC's partner, Clothes Aid.

NSPCC said the clothes are sold and money raised will pay for more ChildLine counsellors to answer children by phone and online.

Call 08450 722 780 to arrange a convenient time for the clothes to be collected from you.

V Festival

Sun shines on festival

THOUSANDS of revellers turned Hylands Park into a riotous party land over the weekend as V Festival came to town again.

In scorching temperatures on Saturday, the crowds were treated to some superb music tinged with a hint of Madchester. Inspiral Carpets played the 4Music Stage early on and was to be followed later in the bill by the likes of Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds and the return of the Stone Roses with a triumphant set.

There was plenty of party pop on offer too, with Rizzle Kicks, Labrinth, Example, among the acts entertaining the crowd. And while the Roses were doing their thing on the Virgin Music Stage, man of the moment Ed Sheeran and David Guetta also topped the bill across the festival.

Although there was some – but not much – let up in the heat on Sunday, there was no let up from the quality of acts on show.

There was, however, controversy as Cher Lloyd abandoned her set after being hit with a bottle thrown from the crowd, while Nicki Minaj cancelled her performance due to strained vocal chords.

No matter, there was still more than enough to make up for it. Hometown boy Olly Murs looked as though he enjoyed himself on stage and then got the chance to join Madness to sing It Must Be Love soon after, with Suggs & Co showing they still know how to have fun in the sun.

Tom Jones wound the clock back with a vintage performance, before Tinie Tempah brought things right back up to date. The ever-enthusiastic Gary Lightbody then led Snow Patrol through hit after hit before The Killers closed the show as the sun went down over V Festival for another year.

RBS
The Royal Bank of Scotland

AN ARMED robbery was carried out at a convenience store in East Ham last Thursday.

Two men entered the store in Haldane Road just after 6.30pm and approached two members of staff, who felt a substance hit their faces causing them to cough and have sore eyes.

One of the suspects pointed a handgun at one of the members of staff and demanded money, while the other suspect attempted to go behind the counter.

A struggle ensued and the suspects ran from the store, along Haldane Road where they were seen to get into a silver Mercedes saloon car, registration LE51 FHY, which was driven off on Brampton Road.

The victims, a 29-year-old man and a 34-year-old man, were taken to Newham General Hospital, where they were later discharged.

Police particularly want to hear from anyone with information about the movements of the silver Mercedes saloon LE51 FHY immediately prior to the robbery or anybody who was in the area around the time of the incident.

Please contact the Flying Squad incident room on 020 8345 4266. Alternatively, to remain anonymous, call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Murder enquiry launched after body found

A MURDER enquiry has been launched following the discovery of a body in Beckton.

It was discovered on wasteland in Spur Road at about 3.20pm on Sunday.

Police believe the deceased to be a Lithuanian man in his 40s, but await formal identification.

A post mortem was carried out on Monday, but the cause of death was not established due to the state of decomposition.

Officers from the Homicide and Serious Crime Command are investigating and an incident room has opened up at Barking under Acting Detective Chief Inspector Andrew Kelly.

Witnesses or anyone with information is asked to call the incident room on 020 8345 3775 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Learn about the art of photography

RESIDENTS are invited to learn all about the art of photography.

Havering museum photographer Peter Owen will be running a three-month course starting on September 6 at the museum in Romford High Street.

Peter said the course will be tailored to the individual requirements of the students.

He said: "For example if someone wants to know all about wildlife photography or how to do portraits – I will be able to teach them about those subjects."

Peter has been a photographer for more than 50 years, starting at the tender young age of seven.

He said: "I used to go out and about and had a Brownie camera like most other people did back then, now I have a Canon though!"

Peter promises the course will not be too technical, but more practical based.

'Oars'-power for hospice

By Suzi Muston

A GROUP of seven fundraisers will be digging their oars in a rowing challenge next month in support of Little Havens Hospice.

The team, known as the Awesome Oarsmen, will be taking to the water on the River Thames as part of 'the great river race' on Saturday, September 15.

They will row from the Docklands in east London to Ham in Surrey, a total of 21 miles.

The team has already started fundraising by collecting sponsorship from family and friends and are hoping to raise £10,000 for the hospice, which cares for seriously ill children from across Essex.

Crew member Kelly Brewer, 23, from Hornchurch, said: "We are all really looking forward to the challenge of rowing along the Thames for Little Havens. We decided to help this amazing charity as they really need and deserve our support.

"They have to raise £46,000 every week and we'd like to make a contribution to that."

Kelly will be joined in the boat by her dad Peter, 50, and sisters Natasha, 21, and Siobhan, 19, who, as cox, will be leading the team on the day.

Other team members include family friends Harry Fayers, 23, George Fayers, 22, and Paul Dufourne, 22.

To sponsor the team, log onto www.justgiving.com/GRR-team

TORCH BEARER: Adam Hollick, a fitness instructor at YMCA, is one of the Paralympic torch bearers.

Romford man selected as a Paralympic Torchbearer

By Suzi Muston

A DISABLED fitness instructor from Romford has been selected as a Paralympic Torchbearer.

Adam Hollick will carry the flame on its journey from Stoke Mandeville in Stanmore to the Olympic Stadium in Stratford.

He will be part of a five person torch relay team of recent InstructAbility Graduates.

Adam, 25, broke his neck and damaged his spinal cord when he was 20 years old. He was on his way to a party and a passenger in the front seat of a car that crashed.

He said: "After my initial assessment the consultant said 'You know you are never going to be the same again and there is a chance you won't be able to walk?'"

"But I was not going to give up trying. I worked hard with the physios and I started to regain more function. I kept pushing myself to do more; I felt it was important to get my body to relearn movements as quickly as possible. I set a new goal every day. If I managed to get out of the chair one day, the next day I had to take a step, and then get to the door and it wasn't long before I was heading down the corridor.

"After two months I finally walked out of the hospital exit."

Eventually Adam qualified as a fitness instructor through the InstructAbility scheme at Romford YMCA.

Adam said: "When I got the news that I was going to carry the Paralympic Torch I had my auntie screaming down the phone and then my mum who was at work also screamed along with the rest of her office. My dad is excited too but shows it in a quieter way."

Public Notices

THE MARRIAGES AND CIVIL PARTNERSHIPS (APPROVED PREMISES) REGULATIONS 2005

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PREMISES TO BE APPROVED AS A VENUE FOR CIVIL MARRIAGES AND CIVIL PARTNERSHIPS

I, Vicky Carroll of The William Morris Gallery, Forest Rd. E17 4PP

1. HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that I have made application to the Council of the London Borough of Waltham Forest under the provisions of the Marriages and Civil Partnerships (Approved Premises) Regulations 2005 for the premises known as ("the premises") to be approved/renewal for the solemnization of marriages in pursuance of Section 26(1)(bb) of the Marriage Act 1949 and the registration of civil partnerships in pursuance of section 63A(a) of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

2. The Marriages and Civil Partnerships (Approved Premises) Regulations 2005 state that premises can be approved by the Council if, in their opinion, and amongst other things:

- They are seemly, dignified and regularly available for civil marriages and civil partnerships;
- They have adequate fire precautions and other appropriate safety precautions; and
- They are not used solely or mainly for religious purposes and have no recent or continuing use for religious purposes, which is incompatible with the use of the premises as a venue for civil marriages and civil partnerships.

3. Full details of the conditions and a copy of the Application and the plan of the premises may be inspected at the offices of the Superintendent Registrar at 106 Grove Road Walthamstow London E17 9BY during normal office hours.

4. Any person wishing to object to the grant of approval may do so by giving notice in writing, with reasons for the objection to the Superintendent Registrar at 106 Grove Road Walthamstow London E17 9BY, Walthamstow, London E17 4JA, and which must be received within twenty-one days of the date of this publication.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "(T)" etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment, in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

WGEL secure Premiership status

Athletics

THE MEN'S team from Woodford Green Athletic Club with Essex Ladies secured their Premiership status in the British Athletics League on Saturday at Liverpool.

WGEL started the event in fourth place overall with the possibility of relegation.

Despite not fielding a full strength side, fine individual performances led by Mark Dry in the hammer and Sam Watts in the 200m, saw Woodford gain third place in the fixture, and third over the season.

Dry's fine hammer effort came in a good standard competition. He led the way ahead of Alex Smith, who was selected ahead of Dry for London 2012, with a 73.29m effort.

However, Smith managed to overhaul that with 73.75m on his last throw.

The discus saw Tom Norman have a good competition to place second with 56.04m, ahead of Olympic Games representative Brett Morse.

Alasdair Strange's four events came in all of the jumps, and such was the timetable that three were going on at the same time, each in separate corners of the stadium.

His best placing was second in the 'B' triple jump with 12.98m.

Healson Ihouma also took in four events, the best fourth in the javelin with a personal best of 43.92m in the 'B'.

Watt's fine 200m effort came in the 'B' 200m where he won with 21.09 secs.

Jordan Kirby-Polidore also had a good 200m as he was fourth in the 'A' with 21.43 secs having earlier found his 100m time of 10.77 secs only good enough for seventh. In the 'B' Watts placed second with 10.66 secs.

The meeting finished with the relays and in the 4x100m, and in his fifth event of the day, Ihouma led off to Omololu Abiodun, Kirby-Polidore and Watts, who combined well to record a great win in 40.99 secs.

■ GEORGIE Taylor twice broke her Havering Mayesbrook club discus record as she added the England Athletics Under 17 title to her English Schools gold in an exciting contest at Bedford on Saturday.

Taylor took an early lead before UK number one Adele Nichol edged past at the start of round two.

She responded with a new club record of 44.14m - over 2m better than her previous best - which held sway until Nichol's fifth round 44.17m seemed to clinch gold by just 3cms.

But Taylor rose to the challenge and with the final throw of the competition won gold with another amazing PB and club record of 45.10m.

GOOD EFFORT: Sam Watts.

Picture by Ken Bray

In the same event Rachel Forder was fifth with a fine 39.34m.

On Sunday, Robbie Clarricoats ended a fine season over the 100m hurdles which saw him win English schools silver and earn schools' international honours when finishing sixth in the Under-17 men's final in 13.36s.

Leyton Orient

O's lose again

By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient are still pointless after Stevenage stole the points with a stunning first-half Lucas Akins strike on Tuesday night.

Despite a bright start with David Mooney going close and Gary Sawyer forcing Chris Day into a smart stop, it was the same old story for the O's on 23 minutes when they failed to clear a Luke Freeman set-piece and former Tranmere schemer, Akins, rammed home under Jamie Jones.

A frustrated O's boss, Russell Slade, who saw his side lose 3-1 at Tranmere on Saturday, admitted: "Nobody wants to get off to good start more than me and we've worked so hard in pre-season and it leaves a 'sick feeling' inside me not having got something from the game tonight.

It was frustrating because we had dealt with the first ball and having had a chance to clear it and then the shot goes through Jones."

The O's tried to find the equaliser and had the edge in the second half, but their best chance saw skipper Nathan Clarke's header hit the crossbar late on.

"Whilst we didn't deserve anything from last Saturday's game, we certainly should have come away with something from this evening."

*Orient entertain Hartlepool this Saturday and travel to Premiership Everton in the Capital One Cup on Wednesday.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Point for Daggers

DAGENHAM & Redbridge earned their first point in League Two with a goalless draw against Plymouth Argyle on Tuesday night.

Following their 2-0 defeat in their opening fixture at Cheltenham Town on Saturday, the Daggers may have felt it was a missed opportunity to take the three points after creating numerous chances.

Dwight Gayle missed two chances but found Argyle keeper Jake Cole in great form, who made point blank saves on each occasion.

Argyle offered little up front, Matt Leconte providing their best chance near the end of the first half.

Daggers host Gillingham on Saturday.

Irons mark top flight return with victory

West Ham United

WEST Ham United won on their return to the Premiership with a 1-0 victory over Aston Villa on Saturday at Upton Park.

The Irons scored what turned out to be the winner on 40 minutes when Ricardo Vaz Te setup Kevin Nolan to slot the ball home.

Boss Sam Allardyce was happy with his side's start and performance.

He said: "We grew into the game. We started to expose Aston Villa's defence and got the goal with a perfectly good goal and a perfectly good decision with the referee overruling the linesman. It ended up as a very good day as we won 1-0 and kept a clean sheet.

West Ham started tentatively with Villa - in boss Paul Lambert's first game in charge - having the best of the play without a finished product.

Irons grew more into the game with Nolan firing a free-kick wide before the breakthrough was made on 40 minutes when Mark Noble's free-kick was headed into the path of Vaz-Te who laid the ball for Nolan to sidefoot home.

The assistant referee did raise his flag for offside but was overruled by referee Mike Dean as replays showed the ball was headed on by Villa's Ciaran

Clark and not James Collins in the build-up to the goal.

The rest of the match was quite comfortable for the Irons who looked for the crucial second goal.

A penalty appeal was turned down after Carlton Cole went down under pressure from Ron Vlaar, while sub Modibo Maiga saw his effort cleared by Nathan Baker after he rounded Villa keeper Shay Given.

Villa rarely threatened with only a Vlaar shot, which was saved by Irons keeper Jussi Jaaskelainen, their only real chance of note.

West Ham travel to Swansea on Saturday, kick-off at 12.45pm.

PLEASED: West Ham boss Sam Allardyce.

Wanstead earned well deserved win

Shepherd Neame Essex Cricket

PREMIER DIVISION

WANSTEAD & Snaresbrook maintained their lead at the top following their 16-run win at Woodford Wells on Saturday.

Opener Arfan Akram's 105 helped Wanstead to 241-7, but Wells fell short of the target as they stay in the bottom two.

Chelmsford keep up the chase in second following their 23-run victory over Colchester & East Essex.

It looked shaky for Chelmsford who were all out for 159, but Colchester's batsmen struggled even further with the bat as they were dismissed for 136 while Oliver Devenish took four wickets.

Brentwood are third after a narrow six run win at Buckhurst Hill. Dave Hammond hit a magnificent 137, backed up by Aaron West's 62, as Brentwood set 280-6 for Buckhurst to chase.

Despite good knocks of 58 and 53 from Ian Russell and Todd Astle respectively, Buckhurst fell short while West went on to take three wickets.

Shenfield claimed a 66-run win at bottom side Ardleigh Green.

Suhaib Sarwar produced a knock of 61 as Shen-field scored 243-9 as Anthony Hill and Chris Cook took three wickets apiece.

But Shenfield bowlers put the ball to better use as Ardleigh were dismissed for 177 as Matt Salisbury and Arshad Ali helped themselves to three wickets.

Ilford were seven wickets victors over South Woodford. Max Shirt's unbeaten 69 helped South Woodford to 241-8, but Ilford's top order batted consistently with Vilas Kutty (82 not out) and Gagan Bhogal scoring well.

DIVISION ONE

THE TITLE chase was blown wide open as the top two suffered defeats.

Leaders Chingford went down by eight wickets at Hornchurch, who won in their battle against relegation.

Shahbaz Butt (92) and Sam Kimon (74) helped Chingford to 270-6, but Hornchurch openers, Jamie Sorrell (75) and Billy Gordon (109 not out) performed brilliantly to help Hornchurch claim a shock victory.

Upminster lost by eight wickets to Hadleigh & Thundersley who have made it a three-way fight for the crown.

Fourth place Hainault & Clayhall have an outside shot of promotion following their 104-run victory at Loughton.

Bottom side Southend on Sea EMT won by 36 runs at Orsett, thanks to Modassar Ibrahim's knock of 135, while Fives & Heronians were four wicket victors over Harlow.

DIVISION TWO

HAROLD Wood won by 71 runs over Horndon on the Hill to keep their advantage at the top.

Wood scored 293-8 in their innings with Colin Sher top scoring with 60, and despite a brave 65 from Kashif Nizami, Waqas Shafique took 5-35 as Horndon fell short.

Wickford are 15 points behind in second thanks to their 48-run victory at lowly Belhus, with Tanvir Alam hitting an unbeaten 98.

Stanford Le Hope set Westcliff on Sea 336-9 to chase as Alex Ellis and Harry Maher scored 70 and 51 respectively.

It proved too much as Westcliff's batsmen crumbled to 100 all out as Stanford's Ross Poulton and Gary Sanderson took three wickets apiece.

Gide Park & Romford won by six wickets at Leigh on Sea, while bottom side Basildon & Pit-sea lost by 20 runs to Old Southendians & Southchurch.

DIVISION THREE

BILLERICAY's march to Division Two continued with a nine wicket victory over Old Brentwoods.

Barry Hyam (91 not out) and David Houghton (68 not out) helped Billericay on their way after Old Brentwoods were dismissed for 177.

Hutton look good for the second promotion spot following their 17-run victory at Epping with Naeem Iqbal taking 6-24.

West Essex won by five runs at Benfleet after they set 293-4 with Anup Malpani (57) and ZA Nazir (55 not out) scoring well.

Benfleet opener Andy Prophet scored 55 but number nine batsman Gareth Steed nearly clinched victory for his side with an unbeaten 76, but it was not enough.

Old Parkonians won by eight wickets over Harlow Town, which saw big scores from Town's Ramya Upadhyay (113 not out) and Old Parks' Rizwan Sadiq (103 not out) and Haris Khan (66 not out).

Woodford Green triumphed by 19 runs at bottom side Pegasus & Corringham.

AND THERE'S MORE...

LEYTON SIXTH FORM WELCOMES THE LONDON 2012 ITALIAN VOLLEYBALL TEAM

This summer, Leyton Sixth Form demonstrated its commitment to the London 2012 Olympic Games by welcoming the Italian National Volleyball team to train in its new sports centre. LSC's £40million rebuild has provided a range of excellent facilities for its students and wider community and those for sport are now benefitting the Italian volleyball players who used it to prepare for their Olympic matches. The sports hall was used to stage a friendly match against Turkey whilst the fitness suite is used by the Italian team to keep in peak condition.

LEYTON LEGACY CHAMPIONS AWARDED AT THE BARBICAN

Leyton Sixth Form College's Legacy Champions were congratulated by the Mayor of Waltham Forest, Cllr Richard Sweden, for their award from young people's organisation Envision. The Legacy Champions have been involved in a project renovating the college quad, turning it into a quiet social space for the student body. The students have been fundraising for materials to be used in the quad, and have also created workshops for Barclay Primary School pupils to raise awareness about the London 2012 Olympics.

BRAND NEW FACILITIES

The College has recently completed all the building of all its excellent new facilities including the restoration of its outside spaces and sports areas. The £40million state of the art accommodation includes a Theatre, TV Studio, Dance Studio, Music Studio, two new eating areas and fabulous facilities for subject areas. All are characterised by large spaces, bright and comfortable student friendly areas and the latest equipment.
